

NYAC ATHLETICS NEWS

Fencing

NYAC fencers Kelley Hurley and Kat Holmes were the first and second American finishers, respectively, in the Epée of Kazan World Cup, held from March 19th to 23rd in Kazan, Russia. Overall, Hurley placed in 19th place, and Holmes placed 21st. This competition was the first FIE senior epée World Cup of the 2020-21 season. To find results, please click here. For a full report, click here. The 2021 US Olympic epée and foil teams will be selected in May, with athletes announced at the conclusion of the 2021 May North American Cup in Minneapolis. However, following the Kazan competition, the NYAC has four fencers locked into qualification for Tokyo: Jake Hoyle, Kat Holmes, Kelley Hurley and Courtney Hurley.

Track & Field

At the Cornell Invitational in Carbondale, IL on March 20th, the NYAC's Deanna Price launched a world leading throw in the hammer competition, dominating the event and claim victory, reaching a mammoth 252' 0". Price's second best throw of the series was a still massive 251' 8". For details, click here. At the Hurricane Invitational, in Miami, FL on the same day, Brycen Spratling scorched a double victory, taking the 200m and 400m in respective times of 21.46 and 46.47. All the results are here.

Wrestling

The NYAC's Logan Massa produced a fine result in placing fifth in the 174lbs freestyle division at the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships, held from March 18th-20th at the Enterprise Center in St. Louis, MO. For complete results, please click here. This event was a prelude to a frenzy of activity in the wrestling world with the Last Chance qualifiers for the Final Olympic trials coming next weekend, followed the weekend after by the final trials and, three weeks after that, the US Open in Las Vegas, NV which is the qualifier for next year's World Championships team trials. But it's the Olympics that remain uppermost in mind. Click here and here to hear Sarah Hildebrandt's and Adeline Gray's thoughts preceding the Olympic Team Trials, coming up on April 2nd-3rd in Fort Worth, TX.

Judo

The Grand Slam in Tbilisi, Georgia (the country, not the state) from March 26th-28th will see four of the NYAC's world class judokas taking part: Angelica Delgado (52 kg), Alisha Galles (57 kg), Colton Brown (90 kg) and Adonis Diaz (60kg) are competing. For a deep dive into which of the Club's finest competitors are competing where in the coming months, just click here.

Triathlon

The NYAC's Taylor Knibb is USA Triathlon's youngest Olympic hopeful. To learn more about the Washington, D.C. native, please click here. And click here to follow all that's going on in the world of US triathlons.

Modern Pentathlon

The NYAC's Jessica Davis and Brendan Anderson are among the world class competitors contesting the Pentathlon World Cup in Budapest, Hungary from March 24th to 28th. Live stream of the finals is available here, and all competition results are available here. Selection for the US Olympic team will take place in June. If you want to know more about this fascinating Olympic sport, click here.

Links

To see the NYAC's athletics pages, click here.

For all the news from the US Olympic and Paralympic Committee, click here.

For all the news from the International Olympic Committee, click here.

To see the IOC's Olympic channel, click here.

