Wrestling - 2021 World Championships

Action for the NYAC at the Senior World Championships continued last week in Oslo, following Adeline Gray's earlier 76kg victory and Sarah Hildebrandt's silver medal performance. Several NYAC Greco-Roman men took to the mats, including Sam Jones (63kg), Peyton Omania (67kg), Jesse Porter (77kg), Ben Provisor (82kg) and Alan Vera (87kg). Provisor came out on top among the NYAC men, finishing the competition in 14th place after a defeat in the repechage to Laszlo Szabo of Hungary, VP01, 2-1. For complete results, click here.

Soccer - NYAC Winning Streak Continues

On Sunday, October 10th, the NYAC men's soccer team made it four in a row, defeating Polonia SC 2-1 at McCarren Park in Greenpoint, Brooklyn. In fact, the NYAC scored all three goals, the first being an own goal in the early minutes. The winged foot team quickly turned it around with a beautifully taken free kick from 20 yards out, a swerving left-footer that tied the contest. The match then turned into a battle until, with about 10 minutes remaining, a header sealed the deal. In the reserves' match, the NYAC ran away 5-0 winners. The squads are home at Travers Island this coming weekend in the opening round of the State Cup. Reserves vs. Williamsburg International kicks off at 10am; Firsts vs. New Amsterdam II starts at 12pm. Watch for results.
