NYAC ATHLETICS NEWS

NYAC Medal Count - 2 Gold, 5 Silver, 4 Bronze

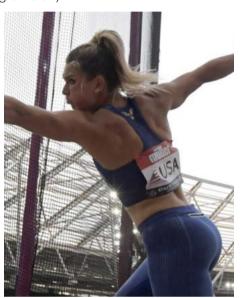

So far, NYAC athletes at the Tokyo Olympic Games have claimed 11 medals, two of them gold.

Strong medal prospects still remain in women's water polo (the US women play Spain in the final on Saturday) and women's wrestling (Sarah Hildebrandt in the 50kg division).

The Olympic Games conclude on Sunday. You can review all of the day by day action by going to www.NYACTokyo2020.com. You will find reports, photos, results, blogs and details of all the action that is still to come. You can also review the action live right here!

Upcoming Action - Highlights to Watch for in the Final Days

The Games of the XXXII Olympiad are nearing their end, but there is still plenty of NYAC action to come. Here are just a few things to watch closely. (Days are as in Japan. Tokyo is 13 hours ahead of New York).

Friday, August 6th - World wrestling champs silver medalist, Sarah Hildebrandt, opens her tournament against 2017 World Champs bronze medalist, Evin Demirhan of Turkey

Saturday, August 7th - The US women's water polo team battles Spain for the gold medals

Sunday, August 8th - The never to be missed Closing Ceremony

The above is just a taste. There is more. Keep up with the action by visiting www.NYACTokyo2020.com.
