More Judo - Nate Keeve Secures Pan American Bronze in Medellin

Saturday, March 18th - Sunday, March 19th; Medellin, Colombia – The NYAC's Nate Keeve secured the -100kg bronze medal at the Medellin Pan American Open after defeating Venezuela's Antonio Rodriguez Rengel by ippon in the bronze medal match in 2:51. In his first round of competition, Nate lost to Rafael Romo of Chile by ippon in 1:46. In his next round, Nate defeated Junior David Cabezas Quinones of Colombia by ippon in 1:08 to advance to the aforementioned bronze medal match, which he won. Andrew Humberto of Brazil secured the -100kg title after defeating Rafael Romo of Chile by waza-ari. Click here for results from Medellin. Keeve will be in action again at Saturday's NY Open at the NYAC.

Soccer - NYAC v. Polonia SC Sunday, March 19th; McCarren Park, Brooklyn, NY – The NYAC Firsts and Reserves defeated Polonia SC, 1-0 and 3-0, respectively in Brooklyn last weekend. That result saw the Firsts at the top of the Cosmopolitan League Division One table, although with the same points (24) as Borgetto FC and just a single point clear of FC Sandzak and NY Shamrocks. Sandzak has one game in hand. In the Reserves' division, the NYAC stands in eighth place. Click here for more information.
